HISTORIC ICONS

London, 1951

Having taken 18 months to build entirely, the Royal Festival Hall opened its doors in 1951. To mark the occasion, a ceremonial concert was held and attended by King George VI and Queen Elizabeth to name a few. We've created a truly special cocktail list to celebrate this monumental date in history and the icons that ruled the century; some famous and others in the making.

Here's to a tasteful trip down memory lane – enjoy!
